Recreation Oriented Vehicles

Definition: Recreation Oriented Vehicle—Any vehicle whose usage is constrained to certain seasons of the year, i.e., recreational vehicles, camper trailers, boats and boat trailers, snowmobiles and their trailers, jet-skis and their trailers, etc., and is maintained in a manner fit for highway or waterway use. A current New York State vehicle registration and inspection certificate gives rise to the presumption of fitness for highway or waterway use. This term shall not include motorcycles fit for highway use.

New Code Section 69-3 B.:

- B. (1) Recreation Oriented Vehicles shall not be parked or stored outdoors in the front yard or in front of any house in any residential district, except in the established driveway, as follows:
- (a) In no case shall any recreation oriented vehicles or trailers of any description be parked on any portion of a street right-of-way between the sidewalk, if any, and the paved portion of the street, or across any sidewalk.
 - (b) At no time shall such recreation oriented vehicles be parked or stored on Village property or any Village right-of-way.
 - (c) Summer use recreation oriented vehicles may be parked or stored consistent with usage listed above during the period from April 15th – November 15th.
 - (d) Winter use recreation oriented vehicles may be parked or stored consistent with usage listed above during the period from November 15th – April 15th.
 - (e) The Code Enforcement Officer shall be able to issue a waiver of up to thirty (30) days in one year to allow for additional time for preparation of seasonal vehicles. Two weeks prior to season start and/or two weeks after season end. Any further exceptions to this code shall be petitioned of the Village Board of Trustees.
 - (f) A single, occupied camper trailer or recreational vehicle may be parked on the premises of a dwelling, as stated above, for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days in any one (1) year; provided that the occupants of said trailer are guests of the property owner and that no charge is made for this location and for any facilities offered.
 - (g) Vehicles and trailers without current registration and/or inspection shall be defined as nuisance vehicles and are therefore illegal under this chapter; unless stored indoors.
- B. (2) Property Maintenance Vehicle(s) shall not be located or stored in front of any house in any residential district except for the sale of such vehicle(s) which duration shall not exceed thirty (30) days.
(Definition from 69-2. Property Maintenance Vehicles—Unregistered vehicles not fit for highway use, utilized for property maintenance, i.e., riding lawn mowers, tractors, trailers, etc.)
