Fall is a glorious time of year in central New York! Be sure to get out and take in the colors and sample the tastes of the season. It will lift your spirits!

Happy Fall!

Assistant Director: Every week when I walk into the YARN CREW storeroom at Canton Woods, I am usually in for a surprise. People leave donations of all different types so looking through boxes and bags is like Christmas morning for me. Recently, I went into the storeroom and there was a huge plastic bag left in the room. I opened it up and to my amazement, inside there were so many beautiful afghans that I was left speechless (for me that is unheard of, but don't worry, it didn't last long). Someone put so much work and effort into the Afghans. At first no one at the center was able to remember who made this donation, but after a little investigating the mystery was solved. It was Carol Lang! Please know we are just so thankful to have these afghans and appreciate your work. They will make their way to various places to warm the hearts of those who need them. We also plan to save a couple to have at our Christmas Craft sale either to sell or to raffle. They are so beautiful. The colors are cheerful and bright, and believe me while showing them to the group, no one could agree on which one was the most beautiful because the next one I pulled out of the bag was just as beautiful as the one before it!

Thank you, Joanie

Important dates: Medicare Open

Enrollment period from October 15

-December 7, 2021! If you are considering a change, it is a good time to start investigating your options. You will be getting mail from all the health insurance companies offering all kinds of new plans. Please know that you do not need to change if don't want to, but if you want to make a change, I can refer you to someone to help you make a good choice.

Well, it is autumn and time to prepare for winter. You should be thinking about getting your flu shots and your Covid 19 booster. There is no online registration for the booster, you just call or show up at a pharmacy or see your doctor.

Some of you have already received your recertification forms for HEAP. If you need help with those forms, give me a call and I will be happy to help. Others of you may need to do a new application. If that is the case for you, I can help you any time after the 1st of October. Please call for an appointment so you don't have to wait and bring an ID, proof of income, proof of rent payment, and a current National Grid bill.

Stay well and enjoy this glorious time of year! Nancy Sullivan

We had just two people come for the class, and they had great fun! The finished wreaths were very pretty. One person said she was going to make another one with her daughter, YAY.

While I would like to set a standard time for the group it depends on my schedule, and Ruth's schedule as the class takes place after regular center hours. We will be flexible. Our next craft will be soap making and an extra little lesson on how the soaps can be presented in decorative ways. We will be making decorative boxes to go with our finished product. These make nice little gifts for teachers, nurses and anyone who deserves a little something special. The class is free. A supply list is available at the center. Sign up at the front desk and enjoy a creative class Tuesday October 19th from 4:00- 5:30pm.

Book Club News

The Elephant Whisperer a memoir by Lawrence Anthony with Graham Spence is a true story about his life on a South African Game preserve. He says he is not an elephant whisperer but that the elephants talked to him. This book was an easy read and a tearjerker in a couple of spots. The expense to run such a facility made us wonder how he and his wife could afford to live there, but we learned that there are many organizations and individuals that contribute to the operation of such a preserve.

Thula Thula is a game preserve consisting of 20,000 acres and a tourist lodge in South Africa where wild animals roam free. Anthony is given the opportunity to shelter a herd of unruly elephants who face death if he doesn't take them. Herds are ruled by female and young males are ostracized from the herd and expected to make their own way. Elephants communicate with stomach rumblings that can be heard by other elephants miles away. Elephants are amazingly smart and become very attached to people given the chance. Anthony had the ability to read the signals from the head female and eventually the herd trusts him. One elephant very proudly brings her newborn baby to show him. When the personality of one of the male elephants changes it must be euthanized and come to find out he had an infected tusk. Humor injected into the story. After 18 years of living with this girlfriend he shows no desire to be married, yet he comes home from a business trip, a wedding, (his), is ready for its main participant. Monkeys invade an outside picnic table laden with food and elephants stroll to the tourist lodge and ruin a party. Anthony has written two other books, Babylon 's Ark about saving animals in the Baghdad Zoo and the Last Rhinos. His wife has also written a book An Elephant in My Kitchen. Out next meeting is October 19 at 2pm. We will be discussing There's a Hole in My Bucket: A Journey of Two Brothers by Royd Tolkien. Join us!
