Gina Carroll

The Neighborhood Advisor Program and B'ville Express are funded by the Onondaga County Department of Adult and Long-Term Care Services.

Director's Note: As Thanksgiving approaches and we prepare to celebrate with family, it is important to take a moment and thank the generous people of Baldwinsville. Canton Woods is grateful to the municipalities, local business, service organizations and residents for their support of Canton Woods Senior Center and our mission. Thank you! As the towns of Lysander and Van Buren prepare their budgets for 2022, you may wish to remind your Town Supervisor and representatives of how important Canton Woods is to you and how much you benefit from your senior center. Let your Town supervisor know you are grateful for Canton Woods!

It is time to think about your Covid booster. The center strives to provide a safe place of you to gather with your friends. We need your cooperation in this effort. Be sure to get your booster so we may continue to bring you together safely.

PLEASE NOTE

When you visit the center for the first time you need to sign a waiver and you need to show Proof of Vaccination.

CDC recommends all Onondaga County residents - vaccinated and unvaccinated - wear masks indoors. The Village of Baldwinsville is requiring face masks be worn by everyone inside Canton Woods Senior Center.

Un-Vaccinated persons or persons who decline to show proof of vaccination: must also socially distance, they may not participate in activities where social distance cannot be maintained.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Happy Birthday to everyone 85 plus!! If you are 85 or older, we want to wish you a very Happy Birthday on Monday November 22 (drive up) from 11:00am- 12:00pm. Call the center to sign up by November 12. (This year Ed Barlow joins this elite group!)

Crafty Corner

Here it is October, not a snowflake in the air. However, we must plan ahead for colder weather, and the holiday season.

The first weekend in December little elves will be visiting Canton Woods. These little elves have been busy for two years now getting things ready for the Holiday Craft Sale.

We have mittens, scarves, hats, blankets, jewelry, and lots of other goodies all at unbelievably low prices. Most items are made from the more than generous donations from community members.

Last year, due to Covid, we were unable to have the sale, so we are going to have a huge inventory for this one. Members kept busy during COVID by continuing to knit and crochet. There are even some new items being introduced.

Mark your calendars now.

DECEMBER 3 and 4, 2021.

Book Club News

Meeting day this month was a gorgeous day with sunshine after three days of solid rain, therefore when only one person showed up for Book Club I really couldn't get upset, I understood completely. Thank you, Margaret!

Because this so ripe for discussion, I made the executive decision not to assign a new book and to ask the people come prepared to discuss There's a Hole in My Bucket by Royd Tolkien for November.

At the end of the book there is a list which contains all of the items Royd was supposed to complete. Members of the Book Club are asked to select one bucket item from the list. Be prepared to discuss Royd's reaction to doing the task. Then be prepared to discuss what Royd learned about himself and/or his brother after completing the task.

If you would be willing to share your bucket list, I would love to hear it... one of my items is to visit France.

Out next meeting is November 16th at 2:00pm Canton Woods library.

Hi Everyone! Our first day trip since Covid was to Raquette Lake. We took the WW Durrant and enjoyed a delicious lunch onboard. The weather was perfect. The trip to Cape Cod was wonderful. We went to Provincetown, Chatham, Plymouth, and the hotel was in S. Yarmouth. Our fall trip next year is to Maine. We are staying in Ogunquit. I will have details in the December newsletter. There is quite a bit of interest in the Ocean City, Maryland trip for May 2022. You can sign up anytime.

I wish you all a Happy and Blessed Thanksgiving. Until next month, take care and God bless,
